Enclosure
Conciliation Agreement

1 2	BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
4	In the Matter	of)	MUR 5542
3	Texar	Texans for Truth
5 6 7	CONCILIATION AGREEMENT
8	This matter was generated by a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission
9	("Commission"). See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1). An investigation was conducted, and the
10	Commission found probable cause to believe that Texans for Truth ("TFT" or "Respondent")
11	violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433, 434, and 441a(f) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as
12	amended ("the Act"), by failing to register as a political committee with the Commission, by
13	failing to disclose its contributions and expenditures, and by knowingly accepting contributions
14	in amounts exceeding $5,000 from individuals.
15	NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent, having duly entered into
16	conciliation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i), do hereby agree as follows:
17	I.	The Commission has jur	isdiction over the	e Respondent and the subject matter of
18	this proceeding.
19	II.	Respondent has had a re	asonable opportu	nity to demonstrate that no action should
20	be taken in this matter.
21	III.	Respondent enters volum	ntarily into this ag	greement with the Commission.
22	IV.	The pertinent facts in thi	s matter are as fo	ollows:
23			Applicable Law	Ľ
24		I. The Act defines	a political comm	ittee as "any committee, club,
25	association, or other group of persons which receives contributions aggregating in excess of

MUR 5542
Conciliation Agreement with Texans for Truth

- 1 $1,000 during a calendar year or which makes expenditures aggregating in excess of $1,000
- 2 during a calendar year." 2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A).
- The Act defines the term "contribution" as including "anything of value
- 4 made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." 2 U.S.C.
- 5 § 431(8)(A)(i); see also FEC v Survival Education Fund, Inc., 65 F.3d 285, 295 (2d Cir. 1995)
- 6 (where a statement in a solicitation "leaves no doubt that the funds contributed would be used to
- 7 advocate [a candidate's election or] defeat at the polls, not simply to criticize his policies during
- 8 the election year," proceeds from that solicitation are contributions).
- 9 3. The Supreme Court has held that "[t]o fulfill the purposes of the Act" and
- avoid "reach[ing] groups engaged purely in issue discussion," only organizations whose major
- 11 purpose is campaign activity can be considered political committees under the Act. See, e.g.,
- 12 Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 79 (1975); FEC v. Massachusetts Citizens for Life, 479 U.S. 238,
- 13 262 (1986)("MCFL"). It is well-settled that an organization can satisfy Buckley's "major
- purpose" test through sufficient spending on campaign activity. MCFL, 479 U.S. at 262-264; see
- 15 also Richey v. Tyson, 120 F. Supp. 2d 1298, 1310 n.11 (S.D. Ala. 2002). An organization's
- 16 "major purpose" may also be established through public statements of purpose. See, e.g., FEC v.
- 17 Malenick, 310 F. Supp. 2d 230, 234-36 (D.D.C. 2004); FEC v GOPAC, 917 F. Supp. 851, 859
- 18 (D.D.C 1996).
- 19 4. The Act requires all political committees to register with the Commission
- and file a statement of organization within ten days of becoming a political committee, including
- 21 the name, address, and type of committee; the name, address, relationship, and type of any
- 22 connected organization or affiliated committee; the name, address, and position of the custodian
- 23 of books and accounts of the committee; the name and address of the treasurer of the committee;

- 1 and a listing of all banks, safety deposit boxes, or other depositories used by the committee. See 2 2 U.S.C. § 433.
 - 5. Each treasurer of a political committee shall file periodic reports of the committee's receipts and disbursements with the Commission. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1). In the case of committees that are not authorized committees of a candidate for Federal office, these reports shall include, inter alia, the amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period, see 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(1); the total amounts of the committee's receipts for the reporting period and for the calendar year to date, see 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2); and the total amounts of the committee's disbursements for the reporting period and the calendar year to date. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4).
- 11 6. The Act states that no person shall make contributions to any political 12 committee that, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000 in any calendar year, with an exception for 13 political committees established and maintained by a state or national political party. See 14 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) Further, the Act states that no political committee shall knowingly 15 accept any contribution in violation of the limitations imposed under this section. See 2 U.S.C. 16 § 441a(f).
 - 7. Certain organizations established under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code may not qualify as political committees under the Act. Such organizations file periodic reports with the Internal Revenue Service disclosing receipts and disbursements. There is substantial overlap in the content of disclosures required of such organizations and the disclosures required of political committees, though the Act has some additional requirements for political committees that are not required under the Internal Revenue Code. Unlike a political committee, a Section 527 may avoid disclosing certain receipts if it pays the highest

- l corporate tax rate on such fund. In addition, an organization which does not trigger political
- 2 committee status may accept contributions larger than $5,000 and accept (for limited purposes)
- 3 funds from corporate or union sources.

4 Factual Background

- 5 8. TFT is an entity organized under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue
- 6 Code. TFT is the Section 527 "arm" of DriveDemocracy, a non-profit Texas corporation
- 7 initially funded through a start-up grant from MoveOn.org.
- 8 9. TFT filed a Notice of Section 527 Status with the Internal Revenue
- 9 Service ("IRS") on August 31, 2004, as a political organization under 26 U.S.C. § 527. This
- 10 Notice identified Glenn W. Smith as TFT Treasurer, custodian of records and contact person, at
- 11 the following address: 5909 Sierra Grande, Austin, Texas, 78759.
- 12 10. TFT did not register as a political committee with the Federal Election
- 13 Commission. TFT filed periodic reports with the Internal Revenue Service and filed Form 9s
- 14 with the Commission disclosing receipts and disbursements associated with its electioneering
- 15 communications.
- 16 11. TFT accepted contributions from individuals in excess of $5,000. During
- the 2004 election cycle, TFT accepted $101,000 in contributions in excess of $5,000.
- 18 12. From September 13, 2004 through October 20, 2004, TFT spent $303,000
- on three television advertisements that were broadcast in the states of Ohio, Michigan,
- 20 Pennsylvania, Oregon, Arızona, New Mexico, Nevada, and in Washington, D.C. The
- 21 advertisements alleged that President Bush evaded his National Guard service while in Alabama.

states" so that "American voters" can see them.

- 14. The Commission concludes that the language used in fundraising solicitations sent on behalf of TFT in 2004 clearly indicated that the funds received would be targeted to the defeat of a specific federal candidate. These solicitations were all sent by email communication.
- attacks against John Kerry by President Bush, by the "Bush spin machine" and by President Bush's "discredited henchmen." The solicitation makes clear that the funds received would be used strategically to counter the attacks on Mr. Kerry by running advertisements "in key swing states" criticizing President Bush's National Guard service. TFT's initial television advertisement, which the solicitation describes in detail, alleged that President Bush evaded his National Guard service while in Alabama and asked him to identify the persons with whom he served.
- 16. Later TFT email solicitations also indicated that the funds received would be targeted to the defeat of President Bush in the 2004 election. These solicitations, issued less than a month before the November election, asked potential donors for funds to air a new TFT advertisement so that "American voters" could hear "Stacy," the wife of a National Guardsman serving in Iraq, tell her "sincere, emotional account of Bush's hypocrisy and lack of integrity." These solicitations described advertisements that would criticize President Bush for "quit[ting]

MUR 5542 Conciliation Agreement with Texans for Truth

- 1 the National Guard early" and now "forbid[ding] Guardsmen in Iraq from leaving even after
- 2 fulfilling their commitments."
- 3 17. Days after TFT issued the email solicitations described above in
- 4 Paragraph IV.16, TFT issued additional email solicitations even more explicitly advising
- 5 potential donors that their donations would be used to influence the election. This third round of
- 6 solicitations specified that "Stacy" would be telling her story in "key swing states" thanks to
- 7 donors' support, and that TFT was raising money to double its advertisement buy so that "twice
- 8 as many American voters" could hear Stacy's "sincere, emotional account of Bush's hypocrisy
- 9 and lack of integrity."
- 10 18. The Commission concludes that contributions received in response to
- 11 TFT's email solicitations that clearly indicated the funds received would be used to defeat
- 12 George W. Bush in the 2004 general election caused TFT to surpass the $1,000 statutory
- 13 threshold. See 2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). TFT received its first $1,000 in response to its solicitations
- 14 in September 2004.
- 15 19. Accordingly, contributions received in response to these solicitations
- caused TFT to surpass the $1,000 statutory threshold. See 2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). 16

17 TFT's Major Purpose

- 18 20. The Commission concludes that TFT's statements and activities
- demonstrate that its major purpose was to defeat George W. Bush. TFT Treasurer Glenn W. 19
- 20 Smith stated after the 2004 election that he founded TFT "in hopes of correcting misperceptions
- 21 on the Democratic presidential nominec advanced by the swift boaters and to tell simple truths
- 22 about President George Bush's own military past."

- 21. In its Notice of 527 Status filed with the IRS, TFT asserted that its purpose is "[t]o educate voters on the records and views of candidates for public office and to promote
- 3 interest in political issues and participation in elections."

Bush – would be shown to "voters" and/or in "key swing states."

TFT's own website, however, described the organization much more narrowly, in terms of its belief that "time has come for America to learn the truth about" the "shadowy past" of a single candidate, George W. Bush, whose status as a candidate is emphasized by the timing of TFT's activity solely in the two months before the 2004 election.

TFT's actual activities manifest this narrow, election-related focus, such as solicitations that told prospective donors that with their funds television ads - aimed solely at criticizing President

- 23. TFT made no disbursements in connection with state or local elections during the 2004 election cycle.
- 24. Since the 2004 election, TFT has effectively ceased active operations.
- 14 25. TFT contends that it engaged in the activities described herein for the 15 purpose of raising awareness of the issue of military service against the backdrop of the Iraqi war 16 and chose the states for airing its advertisements based upon where residents had lost a 17 substantial number of servicemen and women in Iraq. TFT further contends that it engaged in 18 these activities with the good faith belief that they did not trigger political committee status 19 under the Act and that it had fulfilled all applicable disclosure requirements by filing reports with 20 the I.R.S. and by filing Form 9s with the Commission. The Commission has made no findings or 21 conclusions that TFT committed knowing and willful violations of the law.
